Each year, there are a multitude of design trends evident in the IKEA catalog. This year, we've identified a few and we'll be bringing you more information from IKEA on what they see as their design trends over the next several weeks. But here's a sneak peek based on our own observations, just for you!

Pink

It's not the first year that IKEA's had pink all over the catalog, but it's still a big factor in this year's new catalog. As evidenced by the pale pink APPLAD kitchen cabinets above, to the many shades of pink throughout the range, IKEA is still in love with pink.

Ethnic

Bold patterns and colors show up throughout the 2011 IKEA catalog. Oranges, blacks, browns along with earthy textures and tribal patterns stand out against neutral colors like white and tan.

Blue

Blue appears to be a strong color in the 2011 IKEA Catalog. We're seeing deep, rich royal blues like those in the STOCKHOLM line, as well as turquoise blues in the RUBRIK kitchen cabinet line, and both blue and an aqua in the new for 2011 STUVA kids furniture line.

Modular

IKEA has always had component based systems, but this year we're seeing more of a focus on it. Take the STUVA line mentioned above – it's like PAX for kids. Very modular, very component based. And the new VAXHOLM modular sofa is mix and match parts and pieces to get the look you want.

Colorful

Lots of bright colors in the forecast for this year. Perhaps we're feeling more optimistic? Last year it was grays and dark woods – this year, textiles, bookcases and component-systems are full of bright primary and secondary colors. (Note the FASTBO panels in the second picture actually debuted last year, but I couldn't resist – so bright and cheery!)

Folk

Swedish heritage has always been evident in IKEA's range and this year is no exception. Look for folksy patterns, embroidered textiles and children's bedding in folk patterns.

Love Ikea; thanks for your wonderful, democratic philosophy and design. At this moment I am surrounded by three Ikea lams which I so enjoy in my livingroom. Unfortunately, yesterday I purchased an Ikea Skanka 10.25 grey pan with lid which had wrong hardware enclosed (screw too short for lid handle attachment.) Can you kindly mail me the correct hardware or a replacement? It is a "many-hour" trip for me to return to Brooklyn for return.
If mailing is possible, I will gladly email my address to you. Thanks for your wonderful stores, designers and care for the world's resources.
Sincerely,
Shelley Olson

Hi,

I love the new vaxholm modular sofa design – finally Ikea have released a sofa that will suit modern homes! I live in Dubai and it seems that the VAXHOLM model is not yet available. When will this be released in the UAE?

Thanks a lot!

Rebecca

Could someone identify the products in the VAXHOLM modular sofa photo (second photo in "Modular" section)?

- wall storage unit
- centre coffee table
- side coffee table

Hi!

I bought the redalen bed, and I would like to know where I can find more images of the bedrooms with it. I need some inspiration.

I also want to know the ideal size of the mattress, it seems that I bought one that's too short for the bed...

thanks
